Oh I've never listened to
Preachers or reverends
Or the likes of it
And I haven't said prayers much
And I've don't been to church
Not since I was a kid
I have never believed, No

But now I've started to worry,
I'm all shaky and shivery
I am so insecure
'Couse this time it's mad love
It's a crazy and true love
And I need to be sure
Maybe I could believe, Yeah
Maybe I could believe, Yeah

If I could please God,
Now that I found Him
Can I keep Him?
I'll be your sweetest child,
I'll quit all the lying
And decieving
You know I wouldn't survive
The loss or the pain
So please don't break
This Girl again

I hold Him so tightly
Oh please God almighty
If you really exist
Please make Him stay
Don't let him drift away
Oh please
Don't call back your bliss

I think I could believe, Yeah
Oh I think I could believe, Yeah
If you just please God
Now that I found Him
Can I keep Him?

I'll be your sweetest child,
I'll quit all the lying
And decieving
You know I wouldn't survive
More loss or more pain
Oh No No No
More loss or more pain
Oh please don't break
This Girl again

Maybe I could believe, Yeah
(I could believe)
I guess I could believe, Yeah
(I could believe)
I think I could believe, Yeah
(I could believe)
Oh I guess I could believe, Yeah
Now won't you, won't you

Please God,
Now that I found Him
Can I keep Him?
I'll be your sweetest child,
And decieving
Now won't you, won't you

Please God,
Now that I found Him
Can I keep Him?
I'll be your sweetest child,
And decieving
More loss or more pain
This Girl again
