if i told you that i'd never really cared and if i told you that i'd never cried you'd know that i lied
you'd know i lied and if i told you that i'd found somebody new it wouldn't make it any easier and what he doesn't know
won't hurt at all
you know just as well as i that he's a better man than i and i know you know guess i never got around to telling you i guess that if i told you now then i'd have nothing to lose well i think of you
'cause if i told you that i'd found another girl
it wouldn't make it any easier and what he doesn't
you know just as well as i, you know just as well as i he's a better man than i, he's a better man than i could ever be
