"Eyes Were Blue"

You waited for 20 years
For something to happen
You can't go home
You couldn't stay
Black bruise on your chin
Quit breathing

Their eyes were blue
Their eyes were blue
Their eyes were blue, blue, blue

Early morn' in subwaytrain
Every eye is watching
Will anyone ever believe
The things that you
Now have seen
Start forgetting

Their eyes were blue
Their eyes were blue
Their eyes were blue, blue, blue
Eyes were blue

You waited for 20 years
For something to happen
