Everyone has a problem in their lifes
Even the grown up, and their wives
This is the only thing you
Hear the next line and you will find a clue

Cause everybody got to learn
How to be smart enough
So they have to turn
Around their head, that's what I thought

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine

Every step you'll take will make a change
It's gonna go good if you keep beeing on your range
You have to be brave and self-assured
That's enough and you don't have to say a word

Everybody have to see
What they are deep inside.
It's OK with me
Cause I know it's a better side.

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine

SOLO

[CHORUS]

You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say
I would just take, what's mine
And I'm doing fine
You should care about your only way
And not think about what the others say
I would just take, what's mine

And I'm doing fine
