Verse 1

There's a picture in my mind...
I see us through the years.
In five, or ten, or fifty years from now.
Reflecting on our life together,
And how the world does change.
Throughout all the ups and downs,
One thing remains the same.

verse 2

Like the moment we first met,
Stays frozen in my mind,
Your smile that I cannot forget,
That won't change with time.
How you put me right at ease,
And still do to this day...
I knew right then I'd love you,
I knew that I could say.....

chorus

That I'll love you,
Years from now,
When the photographs are faded
And the edges are all torn,
Oh, the picture will be clearer
Than it ever was before....
Years from now.

Oh, years from now,
All the memories we gather,
What a story they will tell,
Talkin' 'bout the old days,
Remembering so well,
Years from now....
And I will love you even more...
Years from now....

verse 3

Still some say a little love,
Grows old and fades to grey,
But they haven't walked in your shoes
Or loved you in my way,

Vows we made together
Won't tarnish with the weather,
And they'll only have more meaning,
With every passing day.....

chorus
And I'll love you,
Years from now,
When the photographs are faded
And the edges are all torn,
Oh, the picture will be clearer
Than it ever was before....
Years from now.

Oh, years from now,
All the memories we gather,
What a story they will tell,
Talking 'bout the old days,
Remembering so well,
Years from now....
And I will love you even more,
Years from now
