How long have you been free
In this world of hate and greed
Is it black or is it white
Let's find another compromise
And our future standing still We're dancing in the spotlights
Where's the leader who leads me
I'm still waiting
Leaving home

REFRAIN:

And god is on your side
Dividing sparrows from the Nightingales
Watching all the time
Dividing water from the burning fire.....
Inside

Leave a light on in the night for me
That I can find you Remember when we both were young and reckless and so curious
Now you're hiding from your child...
A new day's dawning
Remember that you felt alive sometimes

REFRAIN:

And god is on your side Dividing cruelty from tender mask
Watching all the time Dividing fiction from reality

Move in circles walk on lines
No humans being in sight
Calm the winds and calm the seas
Let's try another kind of peace
Who fights this holy civil war
A million man in uniform
Wo ist der F?hrer der mich f?hrt
Ich warte immer noch
Leaving home

REFRAIN:

And god is on your side

Dividing presence from the history
Watching all the time
Dividing death man from the listening once

Leave a light on in the night for me
That I can find you Remember when we both were
young and reckless and so curious
Now you're hiding from your child...
A new day's dawning
Remember that you felt alive sometimes

REFRAIN:

And god is on your side Dividing soldiers from the fisherman
Watching all the time
Dividing warships from the fairyboats
