Down beside me
Lead on
These promises I keep
Daydream
Everything you knew
Take heart
It's coming back for you

Baby, don't cry tonight no
The tears are falling down
It's hard to wipe them away
But don't you ever go and run run run
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
And you were a kid now
You're finding it hard to sleep
Seems there's not enough air
For you to breathe
But don't you ever go and run run run
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
And you were a kid

Two days
Will bring another week
Sometimes
I feel I'm on repeat
Fall back
Weightless undone
Gather up
Now you're home

Baby, don't cry tonight no
The tears are falling down
It's hard to wipe them away
But don't you ever go and run run run
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
And you were a kid now
You're finding it hard to sleep
Seems there's not enough air

For you to breathe
But don't you ever go and run run run
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
And you were a kid

Baby, don't cry tonight no
The tears are falling down
It's hard to wipe them away
But don't you ever go and run run run
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
And you were a kid now
For you to breathe
Like your mother did
When she was young young young
