I tossed and turned and tried counting sheep
When will I ever learn how I'll ever sleep
'Til you're by my side it's just a waste of time
Ain't no use tryin' to get you off my mind

So I guess, I'll be confessin' my love, confessin' my love
There ain't gonna be no restin' at all, 'cause I want you too much
I might get all embarrassed and a little tongue-tied
'Cause I ain't had no lessons in expressin' it right
Yes I guess, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight

Toughest thing to do is up and speak my mind
I've been wanting you for too long a time
I just can't take this anymore
'Bout to hear some knockin' on your front door

Tossed and that I guess, I'll be confessin' my love, confessin' my love
There ain't gonna be no restin' at all, 'cause I want you
too much
I might get all embarrassed and a little tongue-tied
'Cause I ain't had no lessons in expressin' it right
Yes I guess, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight
Yes, I guess I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight

Yes, I'll be confessin'
Yes, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight
Yes, I'll be confessin'
Yes, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight

Yes, I'll be confessin'
Yes, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight
Yes, I'll be confessin'
Yes, I'll be confessin' my love to you tonight
