(Michael Dulaney / Jason Sellers)

Tired of channel surfing El Camino ain't working it's Monday night and I'm hurtin' for company bummed a ride to the hideaway I'm the only guy in the place bored silly wasn't gonna stay then she walked in, heaven sent and it occurs to me

(chorus)

What a good night to be lonely somebody's looking out for me oh what an opportunity right out of the blue is it luck or a twist of fate doesn't really matter either way it's a good night, a good night to be lonely

Dollars worth of quarters played some songs and ordered one for me and one for her as I tipped my hat said that she felt restless just moved here from Texas that's when I suggested maybe she could dance with me she said thought you'd never ask

(chorus)

(bridge)

She's following I'm leading and it feels like I'm dreamin'

(chorus)
