So you just called to say you thought of me all day
But you're sorry you ever broke my heart
You just wanted to know if I wanted to go
And try and make a new start
I appreciate your concern
But listen up and learn a thing or two
There's certain things in this life even a fool won't do.

I wouldn't trade a night of pleasure for a lifetime full of pain
Why should I help you drive me insane
Even though I know you are the best I've ever had
I don't need to feel that good that bad.

Now you're saying you've changed
And things are not the same
As they were when you walked out the door
And you swear that you'll stay forever and a day
Well I've heard those same lies before
Well, I wish that I could talk to you but to tell the truth
I've really got to go
Well, let me say it one more time just so you will know.

Hey even if I could, even if I should
I don't need to feel that good that bad...
