You got me wrapped up in a Zig-Zag
Got me thrown back like who the hell is that?
Nick Nack patty wack give a dog a bone back
Break me off a piece of that Kit Kat Cognac
Brushing on my lipstick hit me with the throw back
Small white and fresh chew me up like Tic-Tac
Hit me with the clip to the click to the clack
Everything passed in the flash of a Kodak

So run running man run as fast as you can
Hit me with the numb to the Jack to the Chan
Gotta put it down like a bad hand
With the Mac-10 like a backhand
Remember back when you would chase me down like a
Pacman
Upside down in the world in a handstand
Now I see your lies in the eyes of a CAT Scan
How can I be Robin if you can't be my Batman? Ugh

I feel the pressure's on me
I'll be your precious army
I really need you to know

With your F16 flying over me
Dropping every bomb like a masterpiece
With your F16 flying over me
Laying it out like a casualty

You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
Never take away my heart
Take away take take away my heart

With an M16 and a Glock to the face though
Blew me away spent cheap like a Peso
Stole my mind leave me like a bagel
Hole in my head now I'm stuck as Lego

Said I'm your center but you were my staple
So far gone in a bind and a tangle
Going down south now I'm trippin' San Diego
Stuck at the boarder in a hot Winnebago
Oh but it's so cliché
Ace high went to waste with your poor play
Could have had a diamond
But you lost me in a poor raise

Poor taste now a closed case
Pop, like a PPK
Semi-automatic, C.C sprays
Hot, Villa Tiki Bay
Gotta get away, alleviate

I feel the pressure's on me
I'll be your precious army
I really need you to know

With your F16 flying over me
Dropping every bomb like a masterpiece
With your F16 flying over me
Laying it out like a casualty

You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
Never take away my heart
Take away take take away my heart

Every little feeling that I stacked in Iraq
Every little plan got lost so I ran
Cold War status, COD
Got me all surrounded, VIP
With your love gone I'm stung with a needle
Clean as a whistle, Cold Desert Eagle
Couldn't see the day when you said it was over
Chalked me out, like the white cliffs of Dover

With your F16 flying over me
Dropping every bomb like a masterpiece
With your F16 flying over me
Laying it out like a casualty

You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart

You can take away almost everything
But you'll never take away my heart
Never take away my heart
Take away take take away my heart
