Why, oh why are you leaving
when I desperately need you?
Oh, why are you leaving?
I guess I will not know
Oh, why are you leaving
when I desperately need you?
I guess I will not know

Heavy-hitter to the heart what I step to Never spent a minute apart when I met you
The only girl that got you, the only one to get you
Now I'm ripped apart and you're the one I want to tend to Never should have let you, never should have met up
Watch me turn my back first, so you can see me well up
All because you're fed up, tryna hold my head high Decapitated, I hate it, I hate you

[Chorus]

You were like my calculator, I could always count on you
Now you're like I'll see you later and I don't know what to do
Counting all the times but none of this adds up
To the moon and back is taking off NASA
No solution, keep it moving, I don't know what to do
One plus one equals two, too late too soon
No reason new truth
You just decide it'd be cool to rip my heart out like it's a loose tooth (be me)

[Chorus]

Look, these days are like a speaker box
Got us so out of phase
We always said we'd keep it primo
Nothing can fade
I'm here to stay
Save my place a million miles away
I never meant to ruff her feathers in the bed that we made
I admit sometimes I'm off into space
I try and fix all the things I can't change
And if I'm gone I'm never too far to say
My love stays everlasting like bass

[Chorus]
