I tried to run
I went too far, maybe
You were gone
Love is cruel, it's crazy

You and me
It's over
Ashes fall in lines
I can't believe
It was so good
Crazy
Crazy

You never know
When the fire stops burning
Now I'm alone
Holding the embers you left me

I don't want to talk tonight
So leave me standby
I don't want to sleep tonight
Stay up daylight
Cause I don't want to dream tonight
You'd only be there
Like you always were
And you are gone
