Daffodils and tulips
Now surely they're a sign
That lemonade and mint juleps
Can't be far behind

Love, there's a touch
Of sweet perfume on the wind
We made it through the winter once again

Love is just a simple seed
Underneath the snow
Come some sunny day we've all we need
To blossom and to grow

Love, open up
Feel the sun on your skin
We made it through the winter once again

There will be times when you feel so down
All your hopes and dreams seem to go underground
You look around and you don't see much to believe in
The winter always feels like it's gonna last
But the die is never cast
There is no rhyme or reason
Babe, it's just a season
And seasons pass

So let the winter shake the naked trees
Through every frigid gale
Baby, have some faith the summer breeze
Will come and fill our sails

Love, let's not dwell
On days that have been
We made it through the winter once
Those dark and dreary winter months
And we'll make it through the winter once again
Once again
