Can I say I'm sorry
can I say I'm wrong
for making you feel insecure so long forgetting to show you what you mean to me
it was an oversight so please for me
so look into my eyes
I don't tell no lies
there's no alibies
about my love for you
there's so very few
could love you like I do
you are all my life
you can't put a price on Whats Here For You
forgive me I'm human trying to survive
it ain't easy but your always on my mind if I make you feel alone and times ignored remember what I tell you it's for sure
so look into my eyes
I don't tell no lies
there's no alibies
could love you like I do
you can't put a price on Whats Here For You
look into my eyes
I don't tell no lies
there's no alibies
I never compromise
ever my love for you
could ever really love you
the way I really do
