A thunderstorm shouts in the dead of the night
Tells of Your power, it tells of Your might, it's true
All for the glory of You

Golden light shining as each day begun
Reminding us all of the kingdom to come so soon
All for the glory of You

Like the worship all creation gives
Let this life I live be

All for the glory of You
All for the glory of You
Every moment all I say and do
All for the glory of You

The rhythm and rage and the roar of the sea
Speak of Your mystery and Your majesty deep blue
All for the glory of You

Then thousand diamonds hung in the night sky
A whisper of holiness hidden on high comes through
All for the glory of You

Like the worship all creation gives
Let this life I live be
