A beginning and an ending, dates upon a stone
But the moment in the middle is how we will be known Cause what defines us can be found within a line
Finding reason for our time

chorus:

And the years go by, how they seem to fly
They'll all be over soon
When our life is done, did we live and love
The way we wanted to Cause everyday that we leave behind
Goes on to tell the truth
Of how we lived in the line between the two
The line between the two

Will I walk straight, will I be true
Will I finish strong
Will I stand up for the moment
When I could right a wrong
Because the legacy we have will never change
It's how we spend our days

chorus

I could live a life for just myself
Or I could live a life for someone else
But I'll live and die just to hear
You say
Well done my son come and be with Me

chorus
