It's time to come away, my darling pretty
It's time to come away on the changing tide
Time to come away, my darling pretty
And I need you darling by my side Heal me with a smile, darling pretty heal me with a smile and a heart of gold Carry me a while my darling pretty heal my aching heart and soul
Just like a castaway
Lost upon an endless sea
I saw you far away
Come to rescue me

Cast away the chains, darling pretty
Cast away the chains away behind
Take away my pain, my darling pretty
And the chains that were once yours and mine
There will come a day, darling pretty
There will come a day when hearts can fly
Love will find a way, my darling pretty
Find a heaven for you and I
Love will find a way, my darling pretty
Find a heaven for you and I
