It's a matter of time, we always get lost
By going very far, it's a matter of time

Like I told you before, things are alright
If I fall to the floor, it's for closing my eyes

I came to this place, so tired at first
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
There's so many things, that I've known before

To make matters worse, the trains are on time
Lost at the station, still lost in our minds

Thrown the rivers, we kicked and cursed
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that I've know before

It's swallowing us, but dream we must
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that I've known before

I
And all the girls have known before
