Oh, it's good
Baby, to make me forget
Oh, so good
Baby, so good to make me forget
Forget myself again

I walk down the steps to the river with my outfit
Full set to deliver and the minute it's done
There's nothin' but time on a pay telephone
I send a message to mine

Yeah, it's good, so good, baby
Because it makes me forget
Oh, so good, so good, baby
Because it makes me forget
Forget myself again

Upstairs, slower on my feet got to get to the corner
And I know it's getting late at the cold polar ice
End of the line if I don't wake up
Send a message to mine

Oh it's good, so good, baby
Because it makes me forget
Forget myself again

Seventeen steps down to the river with my outfit
Full set to deliver and the floodlights shine
Blindin' my eye on the pay telephone
I send a message to mine

Back down, early in the morning
Same building, different story
Well, the room here's free and it's easy to find
The tricks of her frame send a message to mine

Yeah, so good, so good, baby
Because it makes me forget
Oh, so good, so good, baby
Because it makes me forget
Forget myself again
Yeah, so good, so good, baby

Yeah, it's good, baby
It makes me forget
Oh, so good
Because it makes me forget 'bout myself again

Forget myself again
Forget myself again, baby
It's gonna make me forget
Forget myself again
