You surround yourself with statues, babe
Cuz it seems the only way to keep you sane
But I know you well enough to say that you and them
Just ain't one and the same
We could sit here at this bar all night
And put down empty bottles til we're blind
But I'll still go to bed alone the same
I suppose we're better off there anyway

I'm sorry baby if I hurt your pride
I'm just a low man fighting fears
I'm sorry baby if I made you cry
It's just the way I show I care

I can find so many ways to say
All the things that I don't even mean
But I can't find the words I want to say
And I can see by your eyes that I should leave

I'm sorry baby if I hurt your pride
I'm just a low man fighting fears
I'm sorry baby if I made you cry
It's just the way I show I care

If one of us would break
If one of us would break

You surround yourself with statues, babe
But they're the ones who get your time and your eye
I can't tell you what I want to say
So I'll leave with this moment on my mind

I'm sorry baby if I hurt your pride
I'm just a low man fighting fears
I'm sorry baby if I made you cry
It's just the way I show I care
I'm sorry baby if I hurt your pride
I'm just a low man fighting fears
I'm sorry baby if I made you cry
It's just the way I show I care
