I heard your revolution song playing on the radio
I heard it fall under fists decided by the drums of war
Why do you try to scream in the crowd when no one wants to hear
Why don't you go and wave the white flag because no one seems to care
What the hell are we doing this for?

We keep singing while the innocent die
What difference do we really make?
We keep singing while we can't stop the crying
And it seems so sad and I feel the same
Yea, I miss you

No longer vital,
No longer relevant today
We're so suicidal
All we're doing is making enemies
And ya say we'll settle the score

We keep singing while the innocent die
What difference do we really make?
We keep singing while we can't stop the crying
And it seems so sad and I feel the same

We keep singing while the innocent die
What difference do we really make?
We keep singing while we can't stop the crying
And it seems so sad and I feel the same
Yea, I miss you
(Left, left, left right left)

What the hell are we doing this for?

We keep singing while the innocent die
What difference do we really make?
We keep singing while we can't stop the crying
And it seems so sad and I feel the same

And, I miss you
Yea, I miss you
Yea, I miss you baby
