Last night in my dreams I saw you with another
And when I turned around, you were gone
It all came back to me
Through a postman and this letter
That brought the words ?I fell in love with another?
How does it feel when you wake up in the morning
Do you ever think of me lying here
Cause when I go to sleep, you become my pillow
And I hold you tight and whisper in your ear

Does he hold you the way I used to Does he smile at you from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to Could he love you the way I always will Well could you ask him to

I ventured out today I really wished I hadn't Cause everything I seen and heard made me think of you
I know I have to get over you but at the present I'm finding it hard to do So I beg you please to take a moment to ask

Does he hold you the way I used to Does he smile at you
from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to
Could he love you the way I always will Well could you
ask him to

Now I'm a speck on your horizon
A fading light inside your eye
I've come to understand that you were far beyond me
But I'll never understand exactly the reason why You never explained to me

Does he hold you the way I used to Does he smile at you
from the centre of his heart
Does he live for you, would he die for you
If you told him that you want him to
Could he love you the way I always will Well could you

ask him to
