I Finally feel like I've landed
I've been in the air for so long
Threw down the cards I was handed
Gave up the game and moved on

You knew I was a stranger to you
But I stuck it out
Til I was someone
Someone you knew

Where do you go
When you can't go home
Where do you stay
When you're all alone
You'll be alright
One day you will know
Anywhere is home

Just outside the city limits
Is a place that's got no name
We can call it what we want to
'Cause you know it's all the same

Take some time to roll down the window and breathe
And wish on the same star
You're always underneath

Where do you go
When you can't go home
Where do you stay
When you're all alone
You'll be alright
One day you will know
Anywhere is home

Anywhere is home
Anywhere is home

Where do you go
When you can't go home
Where do you stay

When you're all alone
You'll be alright
One day you will know
Anywhere is home

Anywhere is home
Anywhere is home
