I know the money ain't easy
I know the times are hard, yeah
Brother, you gotta believe me
There's more to this space than shooting stars

The tick-times are moving slowly
Don't you worry 'bout what you can't change
Hey, friends, you gotta believe me
Try to realize when you're feelin' the strain

Hang on, cause it won't be long
Till you feel it inside
It's gonna be alright
Roll on like a rolling stone
'Cause I feel it inside
It's gonna be alright

I know you can feel the freedom
I'm free 'cause I stick it alone
I see the changin' of the seasons
Sometimes the end is only the start of

Hang on, 'cause it won't be long
Till you feel it inside
It's gonna be alright
Roll on like a rolling stone
'Cause I feel it inside
It's gonna be alright

You can open your eyes
It's gonna be alright
The world is ours tonight
It's gonna be alright

Do-do do-do-do do
Do-do do-do-do do-do, yeah

New York and the City of Angels
Hong Kong to Montreal
The same sun is shinin' down on us
Hey, brother, this world is so small

Belfast all the way to Memphis
Vancouver, do you hear the call?
I'm not talking about a revolution
Everybody's tryin' to feel this love so

Hang on 'cause it won't be long
Till you feel it inside
It's gonna be alright
Roll on like a rolling stone
'Cause I feel it inside
It's gonna be alright

You can open your eyes
It's gonna be alright
The world is ours tonight
It's gonna be alright
