Here comes that lonesome feeling over me,
Just like the one I had before
And once again I'm someone's used to be,
Take my heart I don't need it anymore

She stopped and whispered
Can't we just be friends
As she was walking out the door
I've got that goodbye feeling once again
Take my Heart I don't need it any more

I'll be just fine without you
I won't let this life without you
Tear my world in two
No matter what you do
So go on ahead desert me
Without my heart to hurt me
I won't feel a thing you do
While I'm missing you

I'm over sad and lonely that's for sure
Take my heart
I don't need it anymore
Take my heart I don't need it anymore
Oh take my heart I don't need it anymore...
