Wheels are turnin'
I feel my whole life spinnin' 'round
Stars are burnin'
I don't even know where I am

Sometimes the road seems like
Such a crazy way to live
Sometimes my dreams take more
More than I can give

When I need you
Gotta see you
I find a way to break through
And I can almost feel your touch
When I'm restless
Feelin' desperate
I know I'll never make it
Without your love

Even though you're a thousand miles
Away from me tonight
I can see you, you're right here by my side
I just close my eyes, I just close my eyes

People surround me
Still I feel so alone
Lost and empty
Every time we hang up the phone

God knows I'd turn around
And run to you right now
I've still got three more nights
And two more towns

When I need you
Gotta see you
I find a way to break through
And I can almost feel your touch
When I'm restless
Feelin' desperate
I know I'll never make it
Without your love

Even though you're a thousand miles
Away from me tonight
I can see you, you're right here by my side
I just close my eyes, I just close my eyes

Well I need you
Gotta see you
I find a way to break through
And I can almost feel your touch
When I'm restless
Feelin' desperate
I know I'll never make it
Without your love

Even though you're a thousand miles
Away from me tonight
I can see you, you're right here by my side
I just close my eyes, I just close my eyes
I just close my eyes, I just close my eyes
