She walks in through the screen door, wearin' a cotton dress

That gets my imagination up and runnin'

Slips it off to reveal a suntan that she got in Barbados

With her friends while they were summer sunnin'

I think, I'll acquire

A previous commitment

Hold all my calls

Everyone can wait a minute

Man, that girl is so fine

She just blows my mind

All she does is smile

And gets my motor runnin'

She don't need Dolce & Gabbana

I'm her biggest fan

When she's wearin'

Nothin' but a suntan

She's the kind of girl your mama warned you about

When you see her walkin' by, you stop for green lights

She's cool, air conditioned all the time

No need to chill her wine, she's that fine, that's right

No Prada or Gucci clothes

No, that don't get it

She don't need a mink coat

So just forget it

Man, that girl is so fine

She just blows my mind

All she does is smile

And gets my motor runnin'

She don't need Dolce & Gabbana

I'm her biggest fan

When she's wearin'

Nothin' but a suntan

Man, that girl is so fine

She just blows my mind
All she does is smile
And gets my motor runnin'

She don't need Dolce & Gabbana
I'm her biggest fan
When she's wearin'
Nothin' but a suntan

Man, that girl is so fine
She just blows my mind
All she does is smile
And gets my motor runnin'

She don't need Dolce & Gabbana
I'm her biggest fan
When she's wearin'
Nothin' but a suntan

Yeah, that girl is so fine
All she does is smile
And gets my motor runnin'
Yeah, nothin' but a suntan
Oh yeah, nothin' but a suntan
