Have you met my girl,
The heart of my world?
Now the part that's gone
And I'm missing her some
We count the cost
(But) we pay and pay
Spend our whole lives trying for just one thing we're
Not afraid to say

If someone's watching, nobody cares
Those who care don't watch 'cause it's always there
Where the shadows run; says your time has come
And I'm john lee scared
I can't sit still and I don't want to
If I can't have you, anyone will do

The things I thought
Could always be bought
Had a price too high
For the guessing of why
You trashed my car
And you broke my nose
No, you can't make love honey,
If you've got no soul!

If someone's watching nobody cares
Those who care don't watch 'cause it's always there
Where the shadows run; says your time has come
And you're john lee scared

Excuse me while I disappear
Anything means nothing
But what you're making it mean
I can't sit still and I don't want to
If I can't have you... anyone will do
