I'm not in love with you
I've told myself a thousand times
Nothing to say or lose
Still I can't get you off my mind
Why can't I break away?

I get lonely when you look at me
Stuck in the middle when nothing's real
We were over before we begun
So if you're not the one
How come I get lonely when you're not around?
I'm in trouble when you hold me now
With or without you I feel alone
So if you're not the one
How come you're the one?

How come you're the one?
How come you're the one?

This ship is going down
But I'm still holding on
Guess I should now by now
You can do anything I'm too far from
Why can't I break away?

I get lonely when you look at me
Stuck in the middle when nothing's real
We were over before we begun
So if you're not the one
How come I get lonely when you're not around?
I'm in trouble when you hold me now
With or without you I feel alone
So if you're not the one
How come you're the one?

How come you're the one?
How come you're the one?

The faster I run from you
The closer I get to you
We're lost in a million of ways

But it still feels like home, like home

I get lonely when you look at me
Stuck in the middle when nothing's real
We were over before we begun
So if you're not the one
How come I get lonely when you're not around?
I'm in trouble when you hold me now
With or without you I feel alone
So if you're not the one
How come you're the one?

How come you're the one?
How come you're the one?
