

Markus Fagervall

"Sun In My Eyes"

Visit "Sun In My Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

The past is present but I won't let it scream in my ear.
And why should I worry about the future when it's already here?

The blue skies tell me I ain't got nothing to fear.
So why should I worry about the future when it's already here?

I've been running with the sun in my eyes
since I first saw the light.
And I'll be running with the sun in my eyes 'til I die.

The past is present but I won't let it stand in my way.
And why should I worry about the future it started today.

Got my feet on the ground.
Got my head in place.

I've been running with the sun in my eyes
since I first saw the light.
And I'll be running with the sun in my eyes 'til I die.

I've been running with the sun in my eyes
since I first saw the light.
And I'll be running with the sun in my eyes 'til I die.

Got my feet on the ground.
Got my head in place.
I won't be turning around, it is much too late.

I've been running with the sun in my eyes
since I first saw the light.
And I'll be running with the sun in my eyes 'til I die.

I've been running with the sun in my eyes
since I first saw the light.
And I hope I'll run with the sun in my eyes 'til I die.

