Is this the end of everything?

Is this the end of everything?

There's a whole progression

Making promises I can't keep

Do I show, I'm empty

Should I beg for your mercy?

Do you know, I'm glad to be

There's a whole progression

Is this the end of everything?

Do you hear me when I weep?

Cause I search, I search for peace

If I should die within my sleep

So you know, hold me

Nothing but you can taste so sweet

Do I go, are you with me?

Cause you know I'm in too deep

Cause you know, lonely

Is this the end?

Is this the end of everything?
