would you mind if i just sit down here
and watch you dance that waltz?
it brings faith just to see what two people can be
with a pattern
and a glass of bubbles

you go round and round and round
round and round

who can tell if the colour that i see is the same for you and me? who can say if the scent i smell are the same for both of us?
would you mind if i just sit down here
and watch you dance that waltz?
what two people can be
with a pattern
and a glass of bubbles

round and round

your steps draw the milkyway i see stars glowing in your footsteps
and watch you dance that waltz?
what two people can be
with a pattern
and a glass of bubbles

round and round
building a milkyway for me
round and round
building a milkyway for me
round and round
