Once upon a time I was with you
In a castle built with dreams we had each night
All the walls were water where the moon would dance
And the floor moved every time we touched

There's no sun now
Stars don't come out
I can't hear anyone near

There's no sun now
Stars don't come out
I can't hear anyone near
Anyone's near

When you left I tried to drown that moon each night
And the water turned to ice that locked me up inside

But there's no sun now
Stars don't come out
I can't hear anyone near

There's no sun now
Stars don't come out
I can't hear anyone near
Anyone's near

Now I found a planet for myself
Where an ocean cares for me
We beat like wounds

And there is sun now
Stars do come out
I can hear everyone near

There is sun now
Stars do come out
I can hear everyone near
Everyone near

And there is sun now
Stars do come out
I can hear everyone near

There is sun now
Stars do come out
I can hear everyone near
Everyone's near
