Took a walk to a caution scene
I guess I crossed the line somehow
And if I lost some of your hope
I'm sorry for the folly was all mine

And I don't ever really understand
All the things that we say
But I try to anyway anyhow

For what's in a day of a dandy life
For what's in a day of this dandy life
Everything, everything, everything

Hangin' on every word
My social butterfly
Everyone wants to be loved
Loved in their own way

I can say I spent the night on the telephone inside
When you said that every single
One of us can find a happy face
So why don't you go try to try anyway

And I suppose I was born yesterday
'Cause I never thought of things
Quite in that way at all and in that way

For what's in a day of a dandy life
For what's in a day of this dandy life
Everything, everything, everything

Hangin' on every word
My social butterfly
Everyone wants to be loved
Loved in their own way

Hangin' on every word
My social butterfly
Everyone wants to be loved
Loved in their own way

Everyone wants to be loved

Loved in their own way
Hangin' on every word
