Yeah, you give up somedays
When the tears, they must flow
But God is always your strength
The only strength that you know

Now everything starts to fall in place

[Incomprehensible] you?re weak just to crawl
Still you say good morning after all
Then you stand just to fall
Still you say good morning after all

Yeah, you question this life
Sure you wondering ?bout love
But you swear there?s always hope
Always hope from above

Now everything starts to fall in place

[Incomprehensible] you?re weak just to crawl
Still you say good morning after all
Then you stand just to fall
Still you say good morning after all

It?s just another breath
It?s just another breath, you say
It?s just another step
It?s just another step today, hey, hey, hey, hey

Yeah, you?re weak just to crawl
Still you say good morning after all
Then you stand just to fall
Still you say good morning after all

Yeah, you?re weak just to crawl
Still you say good morning after all
Yeah, you stand just to fall
Still you say good morning after, after all

After all
After all
After all
