When the walls came up
As the thoughts went down
To the hush of disparity
I'm sure we know
The problem lies
With some insecurities

We'll never see eye to eye
As long as our tongues are tied
We'll never be seen as one
Until we find love

With a moment, it could happen
We could wake up and be laughin'
With a moment, it could happen
We could forgive and be happy

Well it's a shame our world
Responds to life
As a puzzle in disguise
I wish our course
Would lead us towards
The peace and loving kind

We'll never walk hand in hand
Until we let old wounds mend
And we'll never sing songs as one
Until we find love

With a moment, it could happen
We could wake up and be laughin'
With a moment, it could happen
We could forgive and be happy

With a moment some wisdom could be learned
With a moment new voices could be heard
With a moment we could make heads turn
(With a moment, ya)
(With a moment, ya)
(With a moment we could change)

With a moment, it could happen

We could wake up and be laughin'
With a moment, it could happen
We could forgive and be happy

With a moment, it could happen
We could wake up and be laughin'
With a moment, it could happen
We could forgive and be happy

With a moment
(We could change)
With a moment
(We could change)
With a moment
(We could change)
With a moment
(We could change)
