I've got the sun and its seasons
Giving days only wanting to please
But I hear rhyme with no reason
Spilling words that mean nothing to me

Chorus:

I'm not wanting more
Promises and beliefs
I'm just waiting for Someone to hear this heart beat

I've got a soul and devotion
Giving love and a valentine
But I see life in its motion
Grinding out on every subject it finds

Chorus

I'm not running
I'm not chasing
I'm just looking for that old sensation
I'm not cooling
I'm not craving
I'm just living for some new vibrations

Chorus

I'm not running
I'm not chasing
I'm just looking for that old sensation
I'm not cooling
I'm not craving
I'm just living for some new vibrations
