Whenever I taste honey from your lips
It's a moment of purpose only you can give Whatever I hear, whatever I may see
Whatever my cause dear, I know you'll believe

'Cause you're beautiful my love when I close my eyes
You're beautiful my love under Heaven's skies

If ever you think careless is the night
I'll comfort you with silence, till the morning light
Wherever you turn, wherever you may roam
Whatever you conquer, I'll always be your home

'Cause you're beautiful my love when I close my eyes
You're beautiful my love under Heaven's skies

You fly me through your skies of harmony
Then you lay me down with words of honesty
Yeah, you're beautiful, you're beautiful here with me

You're beautiful my love when I close my eyes
You're beautiful my love under Heaven's skies

You're beautiful my love, you're beautiful my love
You're beautiful my love, you're beautiful my love
You're beautiful my love, you're beautiful my love

You're beautiful my love, you're beautiful my love
You're beautiful my love, you're beautiful my love
You're beautiful my love, under Heaven's skies
