Title: Ride, boy, ride

Ride boy ride keep the sun in your eyes
Your troubles you relieved far behind
Oh boy you're free from this land to
So lift up your head, leave your troubles
When night comes, build a fire in the sun
And watch as the moon shows its face
Then one by one you will see the stars return
Like a thousand diamond jewel drops shinning in space
Hey, hey, hey it's the sunshine day
And you're driftin away with the wind
So get up, boy, wipe the sleep from your eyes
Ride in to the morning, ride out to the skies
Ride boy, ride
Ride in to the morning, ride out to the skies
