Chorus:

Don't you know about Jesus?
Haven't you heard about love?
Don't you know about Jesus?
Haven't you heard about God's love?

Boy I never saw
You looking deep into my eyes
Never saw what you did
But when I heard it man
You took me by surprise
I was scared like a kid

I feel 1000 children crying
For their shame and fears
And I know who's to blame
I feel the presence of a mother
And her helpless tears
You even don't know her name

Chorus:

Don't you know about Jesus?
Haven't you heard about love?
Don't you know about Jesus?
Haven't you heard about God's love?

You seem to be
Just like a shadow in the brightest light
You don't belong to my world
You gave this father endless nights

And the you took his pride
You took the love of a girl

You gave her everything but love
And so the angels came
You said that's how it should be
I pray to God that she's in heaven
Without any pain

She will always be with me

Chorus:

Don't you know about Jesus?

Haven't you heard about love?

Don't you know about Jesus?

Haven't you heard about God's love?

The Gods will hunt you like a ghost

You are the devil's friend

And I think you'll always be

I think you'll always be

If someone sees you in deep trouble

Nobody will hand a hand

And that includes her

That includes her

And me

And me
