I'm counting people
Walking through doors
The man who's working there he stares at me
He must be wondering
If I am crazy
Cause since 2 hours I am standing here

I am waiting for my lady
Might be rain or snow
I don't move and I don't go

And the only thing I hate
She will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain
100 people pass that's great
But she will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain

(Keeps me waiting on)

115
I try to imagine
What she would do
If I won't wait no more?
The man keeps staring
I must be looking
Like one of those "f---" like one of those
Who ain't got no home

But I am waiting for my baby
Might be rain or snow
I don't move and I don't go

And the only thing I hate
She will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain
100 people pass that's great
But she will be too late
(keeps me)

Waiting in the rain

Maybe she didn't catch the plane
And she had to take the train

I'm sure she's in a cab
And on her way
The man keeps staring - aha
I pretend he's not there (but he is)
But he keeps coming straight
He keeps coming
Straight on to me

He says: "young man I have a message for you on this phone
I hear her voice saying:
"Baby I won't come anymore - oh
Cause I met someone else baby
And it must be a little love
I don't believe!! Ha!!
This must be a fake!
She's on her way!
She's just a little LATE!
Yeah!

Huuuuuhhh
She will be too late!!
And I'm waiting in the rain
(Keeps me waiting on)

100 people pass that's great
But she will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain

And the only thing I hate
She will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain
100 people pass that's great
But she will be too late
(keeps me)
Waiting in the rain
BaBY - BabY- BABY- BabY - baBY ...YAAAAAAAAHH!!!!
