These are the hands that hold you everyday
And everyday they feel the same
Some people say that's when you've found your way
But I don't think love is

There is a sun that warms you everyday
Never the same but always bright
Summer will go and winters on the way
And I don't think love is

Can I hold you my sugar
And understand
Can you show me your secrets
And take my hand
Let me love you my sugar
I'll be your man
You will see me flying, flying over seas

There is a river saving all your tears
Tears are the key to every smile
Sad is when all you do is hide your fears
Cause I don't think love is

Can I hold you my sugar
And understand
Can you show me your secrets

Take my hand
Let me love you my sugar
I'll be your man
You will see me flying, flying over seas

I don't need somebody
Smiling every day
Wanna feel this river always
There's no need for
Feelings only with a name
There's no always
No everyday !!!

Can I hold you my sugar
And understand

Can you show me your secrets
Take my hand
Let me love you my sugar
I'll be your man
You will see me flying, flying over seas
