God I guess we all know that you're busy
But there's somethind that I gotta know
Finally I met a freaky lady
Whispering in my ear: "i love you so"

Ha-ha
I don't know if she wants my money
Or my tv
Won't somebody tell me if it's love

Will she be the one who's there when I am lonely?
Will she give me love when I'm deep, down and out?
Could you answer me my most important question?
What to do, hey, I don't know it's up to you!

Still there is no sign of truth to see yet
I am far away sayin': "i know"
But I know I've always been a winner
Instead of standing still go with the flow

Ha-ha
I don't know if she wants my money
Or my tv
Won't somebody tell me if it's love

I don't care if she is there when I am lonely!
I will find true love when I'm deep, down and out!
Thanks for answering my most important
Question!
What to do, you have to know, it's up to you!

I will be the one who's there when she is lonely!
I will give her love when she's deep, down and out!
Thanks for answering my most important question!
What to do, you have to know, it's up to you!
