In a caramel boat you will sleep tonight
- here is your river

She took the car keys
Said: "I am leaving
A new beginning
Was born at dawn

In dreams that we had
We never saw that
Two different souls
Can never be as one

She said my music
Will never save me
She said I'm wasting
Sweet precious love

But I am so sure
My music's hope for
The broken hearts
That I am guilty of

So here is a river
From the ocean side
Bringing all my love
In a caramel boat
You will sleep tonight
And God will be above

Here is your river
Here is your river
Here is your river
From the deepest blue of love

My little sugar
I'll give you this song

My only healing
The only way

Whatever you'll do

It will remind you
You'd better
Out it in your mind babe
You'd better get it in your head
And to your heart before
You sail away!!

So here is a river
From the ocean side
Bringing all my love
In a caramel boat
You will sleep tonight
And God will be above

So here is your river (river)
Yeah here is your river (river)
Here is your river
From the deepest blue of love
My only love ã,â"c yes
Here is your river ã,â"c yeah!
Ahah here is your river
My only love ã,â"c love
Here is your river
From the deepest blue of love

In a caramel boat you will sleep tonight
- here is your river
In a caramel boat you will sleep tonight
- here is your river
