Lyrics written by Hasberger & Marque
Music written by Marque

You can push this amazing day
Through the clouds standing in my way
You make heaven on earth today

When the sky is so dark and blue
You make 1000 pains look a few
You can make all my dreams come true

Chorus:
When all I see is falling
Summerrain and you
You help me through the falling
That's what your love can do

And with inner-beauty you throw all lies
Without a word you reflect what's wise
No more use for all sins and lies.

Chorus:
When all I see is falling
Summerrain and you

You help me through the falling
That's what your love can do

When all I see is falling
A summerrain and you
You help me through the falling
That's what your love can do

When all I see is falling
A summerrain and you
You help me through the falling
That's what your love can do

When all I see is falling
A summerrain and you
You help me through the falling
That's what your love can do
