[Intro: Whisper]...

Yeah

You know what's funny?

Seems every time I try to forget about you,

My feelings pull you back in.

You know, cause I got somebody else.

And you got somebody else.

But you and I both know,

What it really is...

But still,

You know what I'm saying B?

Verse 1

Ran across a picture you took of me,

And it got me thinkin

About how we used to be

It was just you and me

Still when you say you love me

Put no one else above you

But that was back then

Now your just a memory

If I didn't go away to school,

Then where would we be?

Probably still together and somewhere happy

If I'm supposed to be moved on in a new relationship

strong,

Then why are you still haunting me?

They say...

[Chorus:]

If you love something, let it go,

And if it comes back then that's how you know.

I got to the stop light then I made four rights.

Now I'm back where I started,

And you're back in my life.

The further I go the closer I get back to you

I say I moved on,

Til' I'm reminded of you.

Can somebody help me?

Help me get out of this circle (out of this circle)

Verse 2

I drove past your house the other day,
I didn't even mean to,
I went the wrong way.
I ain't seen your mama in a while.
When she looked at me, she smiled,
And asked me if I'm doing okay.
Took everything I had,
Not to bring up your name.
And wonder if you came home for the holidays, yeah...
She asked if I could stay awhile,
'Cause you had come in town,
And you were just five minutes away.

[Chorus:]

If you love something, let it go,
And if it comes back then that's how you know.
I got to the stop light then I made four rights.
Now I'm back where I started,
And you're back in my life.
The further I go, the closer I get back to you?
I say I moved on,
Til' I'm reminded of you.
Can somebody help me?
Help me get out of this circle (out of this circle).

Bridge

Anybody whose listening to this,
If you got that person that makes you wonder what if,
Let me hear you say yeah (yeah),
Say yeah (yeah)...
Say yeah (yeah)...
Oh yeah (oh yeah)...
If you understand how I feel,
Then grab that person now and let em know what's real.
Let me hear you say yeah (yeah),
Yeah (yeah)...
Yeah, hey...

[Chorus:]

If you love something, let it go,
And if it comes back then that's how you know.
I got to the stop light then I made four rights.
Now I'm back where I started,
And you're back in my life.
The further I go, the closer I get back to you.
I say I moved on,
Til' I'm reminded of you.
Can somebody help me? (can somebody help me?)
Help me get out of this circle (out of this circle).
