babe, how you gon? come at me like this? all the sacrifices I done made, everything we done been when I didn't have a thing to offer you but dreams and you believed and now you think that I'm gon? dip but I know you ain't gon? trip don't act like you don't know just what this is

I can tell when we kiss when we touch when we making sweet love you know this thing is forever you know the drill keep it real nothing will ever come between us and I won't leave you never

(and I'll put that on) and I put that on everything I love I put that on my momma, baby you can trust in us I put that on everything I own now all my life I promise that you will never be alone I put that on everything I am you gotta understand, I'll always be your man I put that on everything I know I never let you go, cause girl I love you so and I put that on everything you need, I'll get it for ya a few heads I'll split em for ya
