We used to love each other, babe
But that was so long ago, now she's changed
And we don't even talk no more
Now the shit started to affect my brain
I hope that is over in time baby girl
I feel that I can't call you baby, girl
Maybe you made a big mistake
Cause now, cause I know you still love me

Chorus: (x2)

Baby, you can make believe you don't love me
You can make believe you don't love me
Baby you can make believe you don't love me
Make believe you don't care! yeah!

But you do, but you do, but you do, yeah, uh

I should have called and apologize
But I was so caught up in my pride
Even if that was so long ago
I just can't get the shit off my brain.
I hope that is over in time baby girl
I feel that I can't call you baby, girl
Maybe you made a big mistake
Cause now, cause I know you still want me

Chorus: (x2)

Baby, you can make believe you don't love me
You can make believe you don't love me
Baby you can make believe you don't love me
Make believe you don't care! yeah!

(x2)

But you do, but you do, but you do, yeah

Ran into you a couple days back
When I saw you, feelings came back
I thought the shit went away
But baby I was wrong for feeling that way
I miss holding hands, and making plans
For you to have my last name, understand
Wish we can work it out now like damn

Only way I get to see is Instagram

I miss you now, I miss you now, I miss you now
I miss you now, I miss you now, I miss you now

Chorus: (x2)

Baby, you can make believe you don't love me
You can make believe you don't love me
Baby you can make believe you don't love me
Make believe you don't care! yeah!
