There was no end and no beginning there was no exit that i could find can't tell you what you want to hear come to get you can't tell you what you want to hear come to get you can't tell you what you want to hear all my chains all my chains all my chains would break aside there was no transfer that i could borrow there was no place here to unfold there was no pill that i could swallow i'll take my chances can't tell you what you want to hear come to get you can't tell you what
you want to hear all my chains all my chains all my chains would break aside come and save your self i swear i don't care even if i do there was no lead here i had to follow no heart to love you so i'm told there was no transfer that i could borrow i'll take my chances for tomorrow can't tell you what you want to hear come to get you can't tell you what you want to hear come to get you can't tell you what you want to hear all my chains all my chains all my chains would break aside
